

HARRIS

THE INMATES

Botly, Broome, Ellis, Taylor-Vaisey, Farley, Somerton

The Inmates Are Running the . . .

Harris Honours Grads are running the Institute. Kathleen Farley (PEP'98 & Valedictorian) is Registrar; Karyn Ellis (RAM'03 & Valedictorian) is Web Manager; Clinton Somerton (PEP'97) is Administration Coordinator; Bryce Taylor-Vaisey (PEP'08) is Studio Manager; Dan Broome, (RAM'94) is RAM Director and George Botly, who will receive the first Honourary Honours Diploma on Oct. 26, is Administration Manager.

Paul's Excellent Adventure

Paul Bannerman has lived in 51 cities and performed for over 6 million people in 1,100+ venues in 78 countries. For the last 7 years he has toured the world with Cirque Du Soleil's Emmy Award winning production 'Varekai'. Previously, he was the featured drummer in the Tony Award winning show 'Blast!'. Paul is a 1993 graduate of the Recording Arts Management (RAM) Program at Harris Institute. Visit pauljbannerman.com

Wright

Geddes

Collingwood Rocks!

Congrats to Drew Wright for finishing 3rd in the 2008 Canadian Idol and John Geddes for taking his first feature film 'Scarce' to Cannes. They were in the same class in the Producing/ Engineering Program (PEP) in 2002 and are both from Collingwood. Two outstanding achievements. Whatever they're putting in Collingwood's water seems to be working. See the horror film trailer at scarcemovie.com Visit Drew Wright on YouTube

Full For Fall

Diploma Programs starting on November 10, 2008 in Recording Arts Management (RAM) and the Producing/ Engineering Program (PEP) have reached maximum enrollment. Applications for the March 23, July 13 and November 9, 2009 programs are now being processed. It is recommended that applications be received 90 days or more prior to a term start for priority consideration. Detailed program info at harrisinstitute.com

SOLD OUT

The Idol Connection

Phil Demetro (PEP'96) mastered the recordings; David Quillico (RAM'94) placed songs with winners; Azra Hussein (PEP'03) recorded the winners with Oren Issacs; Daniel Mekinda (RAM'01) organized the songwriting events; Ben Waldman (RAM'02) coordinated recordings for BMG; Jake Gold won an award for hiring grads; Zack Werner taught Contracts; Oren, Jake & Zack Guest Lectured & Drew was third!

6 Degrees of Recognition

Six Harris grads, Justin Aucoin; Ira Cohen; Daniel Copithorn; Joel Etkin; Sasha Girling and Jeff McLean, have begun studies at the University of the West of Scotland's School of Media, Language and Music. They will earn degrees as part of a partnership between UWS and Harris Institute. 14 UWS students completed work placements in Toronto coordinated by Harris in June. Degree Programs at uws.ac.uk

UWS

UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST of SCOTLAND

School of Media, Language & Music

ROCK ENROLLING! FOR TWENTY YEARS

20th Birthday Bursaries

As a feature of its 20th Birthday celebrations in 2009, Harris Institute will be awarding $500 Bursaries to all students successfully completing the one year full time Recording Arts Management (RAM) Program or the Producing /Engineering Program (PEP) starting on March 23 or July 13, 2009. Framed 20th Birthday Bursary Certificates and cheques will be awarded at the annual graduation ceremony.