
The Beat Goes On!

$60,000 in Scholarships Awarded by "The Beat"

Kitchener based radio station 91.5 The Beat announced the first winners of its annual scholarships to attend Harris Institute in Toronto.

The seven winners were awarded over $60,000 in scholarships as part of The Beat's unique commitment to the development of individuals entering the music industry from the Kitchener region.

"Congratulations to the winners and to Liz Janik for proposing the scholarship program and to David Jones, The Beat's General Manager and Program Director, for orchestrating it," says John Harris. "Over time the scholarship winners will have a significant impact on the business of music in Kitchener and its surrounding communities".

The winners of The Beat's 2005 Harris Institute Scholarships are Jared Green, Andrew McDonnel, Jamie Mitchell, Cambria Olding, Sarah Onyschuk, Daniel Sweeney and Kyle Wilson.

Liz Janik of Liz Janik Associates and Harris Faculty member.
