

Twelve of Industry's Best Join Harris Faculty

Twelve music industry leaders have joined Harris Institute's sixty-one member faculty.

Founded in 1989, the Toronto based private college specializes in comprehensive one-year Diploma Programs in audio production and the music industry.

Joining the Producing/Engineering Program (PEP) faculty are Terry Brown, multi-platinum award-winning producer (Rush, Blue Rodeo, Cirque du Soleil); Mike Daley, award-winning music theory teacher; Andy Malcolm, Genie, Gemini and Golden Reel award-winning Foley Artist (performed Foley in over 120 feature and Imax films); Neil Muncy, renowned audio consultant (contributed to over 500 recording and broadcast facilities worldwide) and Brent Haliskie, veteran location recordist (CTV W5, CBC Venture and Man Alive).

New Recording Arts Management (RAM) faculty are Jane Harbury, award-winning publicist (Ben Heppner, JUNO Awards, NXNE); Doug Kirby and Darcy Gregoire, CEO and

Odette Spitzer teaches Promotions & Sponsorships

Jane Harbury teaches Media & Music

President of LiveTourArtists; Tim Notter, co-owner (with Alex Lifeson) and Manager of Toronto's renowned Orbit Room; Graham Stairs, True North Records' Director of International and Talent Acquisition; Odette Spitzer, Events & Promotions, Corus Entertainment's DeepSky and former Program Director, International Special Events Society (ISES) and Gary Topp, the award-winning veteran concert promoter (The Police, Jerry Seinfeld, Nine Inch Nails).

Harris Institute's award-winning faculty also includes Jack Richardson, Canada's most honoured record producer; Dr. Eric McLuhan, internationally known media theorist; Doug McClement, Canada's leading remote recording engineer; Kim Clarke Champniss, award-winning music journalist; Liz Janik, renowned broadcast consultant; Martin Pilchner, '03 & '05 TEC "Studio Designer of the Year" Award nominee; Catharine Saxberg MA, Executive Director of the Canadian Music Publishers Association; Bob Roper, Juno award-winning music industry consultant; Patrick Duffy, award-winning graphic designer; Dan Broome, VP Operations, True North Records; Bo Cairo, veteran Live Sound Engineer; Don Garbutt, Juno award-winning producer; Kate Henderson LLB, music industry attorney; Dave Betts, multi-platinum and Juno award winner and Dave Quilico, VP Music Publishing, Sony Music Canada.

Neil Muncy teaches Electronic Principles

Terry Brown teaches Production Applications